Challenge Consulting Australia (CCA) Collection Statement

As a part of our standard recruitment process, it is necessary to collect particular personal information to assist in sourcing the right employment for you.

What is personal information

Personal information is any information or an opinion (whether true or not) about you. It may range from the very sensitive (eg. medical history or condition) to the everyday (eg. address and phone number). It would include the opinions of others about your work performance (whether true or not), your work experience and qualifications, aptitude test results and other information obtained by us in connection with your possible work placements. Personal information includes sensitive information.

What is sensitive information

Sensitive information is a special category of personal information. It is information or opinion about your:

- racial or ethnic origin;
- political opinion;
- membership of a political association or religious beliefs, affiliations or philosophical beliefs;
- membership of a professional or trade association or membership of a trade union;
- sexual preferences or practices;
- criminal record;
- health or disability (at any time);
- expressed wishes about the future provision of health services.
- It includes personal information collected to provide a health service. Sensitive information can, in most cases, only be disclosed with your consent.

Who will be collecting your personal and sensitive information

CCA will collect your personal and sensitive information for its own use in connection with your work placements.

How to contact us

If you wish to contact us about your personal or sensitive information you should contact: Stephen Crowe – Managing Director, during office hours.

P +61 2 9221 6422 E: scrowe@chall.com.au

How your information will be collected

Personal and sensitive information will be collected from you directly when you complete and submit our registration form or any other information in connection with your application.

It will also be collected when:

- we receive any work or personal reference in relation to you;
- we receive results of inquiries that we might make of your former employers, work colleagues, professional associations or registration body;
- we receive the results of any competency or medical test;
- we receive performance feedback (whether positive or negative);
- we receive any complaint from or about you in the workplace;
- we receive any information about a workplace accident in which you are involved;
- we receive any information about any insurance investigation, litigation, registration or professional disciplinary matter, criminal matter, inquest or inquiry in which you are involved;
- you provide us with any additional information about you.

How your information will be used

Your personal and sensitive information may be used in connection with:

- your actual or possible work placement – information collected during reference checking may be used as part of the decision-making process during any of your temporary or permanent work placement/s
- your performance appraisals;
- our assessment of your ongoing performance and prospects;
- any test or assessment (including medical tests and assessments) that you might be required to undergo;
- our identification of your training needs;
- any workplace rehabilitation;
- our management of any complaint, investigation or inquiry in which you are involved;
- any insurance claim or proposal that requires disclosure of your personal or sensitive information.

Your personal and sensitive information may be disclosed to

- potential and actual employers and clients of CCA;
- referees; our insurers; a Workers Compensation body;
- a professional association or registration body that has a proper interest in the disclosure of your personal and sensitive information;
- our contractors and suppliers – e.g. our I.T. contractors and database designers
- any person with a lawful entitlement to obtain the information.

Challenge Consulting ENews

CCA produces a regular newsletter for candidates and clients that has articles on current Recruitment, HR topics and job updates.

When you register with CCA you will automatically be added to our weekly ENews updates. These will be sent directly to your inbox. Our ENews also provides access to our social media pages on LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook. You can opt out at any time by selecting the Unsubscribe link provided at the bottom of each email.

If you do not provide CCA the information we seek

- we may be limited in our ability to locate suitable work for you;
- we may be limited in our ability to place you in work;
- we may not be able to transfer wages into your bank account via EFT

You can gain access to your information to make amendments or changes

Subject to some exceptions which are set out in the Australian Privacy Principles (Principle 12 – Access to personal information and Principle 13 – Correction of personal information), you have a right to see and have a copy of personal and sensitive information about you that we hold.

If you are able to establish that personal or sensitive information that we hold about you is not accurate, complete and up-to-date, we will take reasonable steps to correct it so that it is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

If we are unable to agree that personal or sensitive information that we hold about you is accurate, complete and up-to-date, you may ask us to place with the information a statement by you that claims that particular information is not accurate, complete and up-to-date.

If you wish to exercise your rights of access and correction you should contact Stephen Crowe, whose details are shown above. In some cases we may impose a moderate charge for providing access to personal or sensitive information. We will not charge you simply because you lodge a request for access.

Your files will be kept for the following time periods

If you register with CCA but are not placed in any permanent or temporary / contract roles, your files will be kept by CCA for a period of one year, after which they will be permanently destroyed. If you are placed in permanent or temporary / contract roles by Challenge Consulting, your data will be kept as part of our ongoing business records.

Please complete the following information as confirmation of your consent to the collection, use and storage of your personal and sensitive information:
